THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

March 22, 1988

To the Members of
the Georgia State Moot Court Society:

Congratulations on capturing first place at the National Moot Court Competition!

Winning this highest of all moot-court honors is certainly a tribute to your talent, hard work, and dedication. In demonstrating your excellence in the noble advocative arts, you've brought deserved acclaim to your team, your university, and the Peach State. I understand this is the first time a Georgia school has won this distinguished competition, so your achievement is doubly special.

Nancy joins me in sending best wishes for continued success as you move from moot courts to real ones. God bless you.

Ronald Reagan
