CENTER FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & CAREER STRATEGIES

Employers are invited to use the placement services of the Georgia State University College of Law for their hiring needs.

The Center for Professional Development & Career Strategies can arrange on-campus interviews. If you are unable to come on campus, we can collect students' résumés and forward them to you. The Center can assist you with immediate job openings by posting a job notice so that our law students and graduates may contact you directly. We will post part-time, summer, temporary, and full-time positions. Additionally, the Center maintains information on starting salaries, which employers are welcome to review. The Center for Professional Development & Career Strategies will be happy to assist you in meeting your hiring needs.

To arrange for placement services contact:
