The College of Law is dedicated to conducting a program of study leading to the Doctor of Law (J.D.) degree in full compliance with national accreditation requirements and to making this program available to qualified students on a full-time or part-time basis. The College of Law stresses not only the quality of instruction but also its availability, especially for potential students who may be unable to attend full time because of being fully employed and/or having family obligations.

Georgia State University, a unit of the University System of Georgia, is an equal educational opportunity institution and is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. The university does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, handicap, or ethnic origin in its admission policies.
