REVIEW OF SELECTED 1994 GEORGIA LEGISLATION

The State of Georgia does not publish an official legislative history other than the information contained in the House and Senate journals. Since the House and Senate journals contain little more than a record of votes taken on the floors of the House and Senate, the Georgia State University Law Review publishes an annual review of selected Georgia legislation known as the Peach Sheets in an effort to document legislative history. The Peach Sheets discuss significant pieces of legislation from the most recent session of Georgia's General Assembly which are likely to have an impact on the practice of law in Georgia.

The format of each Peach Sheet is designed to give the reader easy access to important information concerning the selected legislation. The heading of each Peach Sheet is the name of the Code title affected by the legislation. The first subheading is divided into two parts: the first part names the Code chapter affected by the legislation, while the second part briefly describes the impact of the legislation. Further subheadings provide the Code sections affected by the legislation, the bill and Act numbers, a summary of the legislation, and the effective date of the new law. The History section provides background information about the issues which led to the introduction of the legislation. The Bill section analyzes the provisions of each bill and discusses any relevant changes which occurred as each bill passed through the General Assembly.

Each edition of the Peach Sheets includes both a Table of Code Sections Affected, listing all Code sections affected by the legislation discussed in the Peach Sheets, and a House and Senate Bill Index, listing all House and Senate bill numbers which are addressed in the Peach Sheets. This edition of the Peach Sheets includes a Cumulative Index of Affected Georgia Code Sections which covers all previous editions of the Peach Sheets.

The Peach Sheets are intended to assist legal practitioners whose practice may be affected by newly enacted Georgia legislation. If you have any suggestions as to how the Peach Sheets might better attain this goal, the Georgia State University Law Review welcomes your comments.
